EXPLORATORY WORKSHOP

3rd Day – Saturday, 12th of April 2014

EXPLORATORY WORKSHOP Appreciative Ethics

Venue: ROMTELECOM building, Lapusneanu Street, Iasi; 09:00- 11:00

Coordinator: PhD. in philosophy, Professor Antonio Ștefan SANDU

Lumen Research Center in Social and Humanistic Sciences and Lumen Conference Center organize the Exploratory Workshop Appreciative Ethics, coordinated by PhD in Philosophy, Professor Antonio Ștefan SANDU.

The Exploratory Workshop Appreciative Ethics will take place in Iasi, in collaboration with SCIRP 2014 Conference, which is organized by “Society for Psychology” Association, Iasi, Romania.

This collaboration will be developed in conjunction with the activities of the 4th International Conference Logos Universality Mentality Education, organized by Lumen Research Center in Social and Humanistic Sciences and Lumen Conference Center.

The Exploratory Workshop will take place at Romtelecom building, Lapusneanu street (R building of the University Alexandru Ioan Cuza of Iasi), between 9:00 – 11:00 o'clock.

The workshop will emphasize the applicability of a new approach of ethics – the appreciative ethics.

The appreciative approach of philosophy starts from the papers of David Cooperrider and Srivatsva regarding the “Appreciative Inquiry”, a way of discursive pragmatism that replaces the focus on problem with the focus on the successful elements from the previous experience of the individuals, groups, organizations or communities.

This experience can be integrated in the philosophical speech, having as referential the Socratic method and the Platonian dialogues. The principles of appreciative philosophical counselling target the partnership between the practitioner philosopher and the client, focusing on the positive everyday experiences.

Philosophical counselling falls within the philosophical tradition of search of ultimate meaning of reality. It's a way of bringing philosophy from the pure theoretical construction space, into the sphere of social practice as a form of applied philosophy.

The appreciative speech starts from the postmodern vision with a constructionist approach according to which reality itself is a social construction generated through successive negotiations on interpretations.

Professor PhD Antonio Sandu will bring into attention for the interested public some of the methods and techniques used in appreciative ethics, such as: the method of compliments, the Socratic appreciation, the identification of virtue, the appreciative abstraction, the philosophical transfiguration, the philosophical intuition, etc.

We kindly invite you to participate in the Appreciative ethics Exploratory Workshop, on 12th of April 2014.

Full responsibility for the organizing of this event goes to the Society for Psychology" Association, Iasi, Romania, the organizer of SCIRP 2014 Conference.

Lumen Research Center in Social and Humanistic Sciences assumes the responsibility of scientific content of the workshop.
